we ARE HIRING!

Video Artists for Multi-Media Tablet Content

OTATAA is a producer of new and highly innovative formats for tablet-based entertainment including stories, games and interactions for the entire family.

We are constantly searching for new talent in the fields of special effects, video editing, and trailer composing. In a variety of projects you will create corresponding movie material for our humorously entertaining products.

Get in touch with us if you are eager, create cool ideas, and think you have what it takes!

Don't miss this opportunity to join our team!
